

HOD PROFILE

Dr. Mrs. Shraddha Bhandwalkar

Dr. Mrs. Shraddha Bhandwalkar has been associated with PES Modern College of Engineering, Pune, MBA Department since 2005. She has completed her Master's in Business Administration in Materials Management and Ph.D. in Organizational Management in the area of Supply Chain Management from Savitribai Phule University. She has worked as Manager - Quality Assurance, Management Representative for ISO 9002 and Sr. Officer - Administration at various industries. She is also trained in Higher Education and Operations and Supply Chain Management and attended many FDPs /STTP and Refresher programmes for skill enhancement. She has taught courses like Manufacturing and Operations Management, Strategic Management, Organisational Behaviour, Decision Science and other core operations and Generic core subjects to MBA students.

She is keenly interested in research in the field of Organisational Management and Supply Chain Management. She is one of the popular faculty who possess strong human skills to connect with the people. She is also recognized Ph.D. Guide for Organizational Management and is presently supervising two Ph.D. studies; one in the area of Empirical study and critical analysis of service quality dimensions with specific reference to Gig workers in Information Technology (IT) sector in Pune Region and another on study of Understanding the Preference of students toward Business Analytics Course in Higher Education Institutions (HEIs).